TITLE SPONSOR OF THE EHF FINAL4

Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

Four high-profile play-off ties in next step on Golden Road to Cologne!

We had 16 teams on the starting grid of the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2023/24 when Europe's top-flight competition threw off with the group phase six months ago. After 14 intense, spectacular, and dramatic rounds, there are now 12 teams left in the race as we head into the knockout phase. Let's find out which teams dare to rise to occasion in the business end of the Machineseeker EHF Champions League!

We continue the Golden Road to Cologne with the play-offs, as eight teams are set to battle it out on 27/28 March and 3/4 April for the remaining four quarter-final berths. Four teams have already punched their ticket thanks to their top-two finish in the group phase: THW Kiel and Aalborg Håndbold advance from group A, and Barça and SC Magdeburg from group B. So, which four teams will join them for the last step ahead of the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2024 on 8/9 June?

The 2016 champions and runners-up of the past two seasons, Industria Kielce, face one of the two Danish sides in the competition, GOG, who hope to reach the quarter-finals for the first time. The winners will meet reigning champions Magdeburg, which means we could see a rematch of last year's final in the quarter-finals.

Two-time former titleholders Montpellier HB, who lifted the trophy in 2003 and 2018, take on one of the evergreens in Europe's top flight, HC Zagreb. The four-time finalists from Croatia aim for their first quarter-final appearance in eight years. The next opponents for the winners of this tie are four-time champions THW Kiel.

In a highly anticipated national derby, Hungarian powerhouses OTP Bank - Pick Szeged, striving for their first quarter-final berth in five years, and four-time finalists Telekom Veszprém HC will clash twice. Whoever opens the door to the quarter-final will then face 2021 finalists Aalborg for a ticket to Cologne.

Orlen Wisła Płock reached their first ever quarter-final last season and are eager to repeat the feat when meeting Paris Saint-Germain Handball, who finally hope to go all the way this season. Whether it will be Płock or Paris, they need to get past record champions Barça in the quarter-finals in order to book the trip to the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4.

With four high-profile ties in the play-offs, handball fans across the world can look forward to two midweeks of entertaining and thrilling action, providing us with the next step on the Golden Road to Cologne. The race to the most coveted trophy in men's club handball is truly on!

Having lost the EHF FINAL4 final in each of the last two seasons, Kielce KC are back with the same ambition for 2023/24: to climb on top of Europe again, like they once did in 2016.

Head coach Talant Dujshabaev's roster has not changed much over the summer. Stalwarts like captain Alex Dujshabaev, top scorer Arkadiusz Moryto, line player Artsem Karalek and goalkeeper Andreas Wolff will again be among the leading players, with one court player arriving: long-range shooter Hassan Kaddah from Egypt. Can Kielce take that final step this season?

GROUP A

MAIN FACTS

- > the 2016 champions played their third EHF FINAL4 final in June 2023, but lost 30:29 after extra time against SC Magdeburg
- > this defeat was Kielce's second straight loss in an EHF Champions League final, after falling to Barça the year before
- > qualified for the 2023/24 edition as Polish champions, winning the domestic title for the 12th time in a row and 20th overall
- > welcomed two new players in the summer of 2023: goalkeepers Miłosz Walach and left back Hassan Kaddah
- > one player from the 'golden' squad from 2016 is still playing for Kielce: right back Paweł Paczkowski

GOG is celebrating the 10th season in Champions League where the aim is to repeat the succes from last season where the Danish side reached the quarter-finals for the first time in history. On the bench Mikkel Voigt replaced coach Nicolej Krickau, who left for Flensburg.

Also a couple of young stars - among them Simon Pytlick who was named MVP and best left back of the 2022/23 season at the EHF Excellence Awards - has left the club, but new blood as arrived. And last seasons top EHF CL top scorer Emil Madsen is eager to equal the 107 goals this year.

MAIN FACTS

- > four new arrivals have the experience of playing Champions League: Danes Aaron Mensing and Anton Lindskog (both from Flensburg), Norwegian Alexander Blonz (from Szeged) and Swede Linus Persson (from Nantes)
- > besides Pytlick and Jørgensen, two more key players went abroad: Jerry Tollbring (Berlin) and Nejc Cehte (Eurofarm Pelister)
- > for the first time in club history, the overall Champions League top scorer came from GOG: right back Emil Madsen, who scored 107 goals last season.
- > new trainer is Mikkel Voigt, formerly in charge of the youth academy in GOG.
- > in the finals of the Danish league, GOG beat Aalborg again, as in 2022; now GOG have a little anniversary, playing their 10th EHF Champions League season
